.... JANUARY 20, 185' WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Gov. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, reached the city to-day Much attention is being paid to

I had the pleasure this morning of meeting your fellow-citizen, Capt. James W. Brannan. He visited Washington on business. He is in good health and condition, and radiant with triumphant Democracy.

As a matter of course politics is ever in the ascendant in this city, and is the staple of conascendant in this city, and is the staple of con-versation in all gatherings of gentlemen. The administration of Mr. Buchanau—his Cabinet— being put at the discretion of the government; administration of Mr. Buchanan-his Cabinethis probable policy, &c., &c., are the fruitful themes of every-day speculation; and yet nothing defin to has been arrived at. No one knows what "old Buck" will do, and the hopes and fears of the ins and outs are excited to the highest pitch. In a postscript to a former letter I told you that Mr. Buchanan had written to this city that ente. be had not made up his Cabinet, and would not do so until he visited Washington and consulted eers, but it by no means follows that they will form a portion of the administration. Mr. Polk made up two Cabinets before he reached Washin ton-the first before he left Nashville, and the second on his road to Washington-and yet neither of them ultimately became his Counsellors. After reaching Washington all was greatly changed. Soit was with Mr. Pierce. The Cabine' originally chosen by him, was materially flakes of snow, which dressed them in an attire

c. anged after he reached this city. The truth is, every President is compelled to cans It his party friends, and to defer in a great r asure to their suggestions and their wishes. He is compelled to please as far as possible, every se tien of the Union, and to consult the various lerests which press upon him. A failure to do so would prostrate any administration, and place it at the mercy of its enemies. The administration of Mr. Tyler is a striking illustra-

The defeat of John W. Forney, for the United States Senate, has produced a good deal of astonishment here. There are some things in Mr. Forney's career which are to be regretted, but his defeat is base beyond language to express, perceive that the then unknown writer was a man and those whe defeated him deserve the deepest execrations of all honest men. He not only had to conteud against a coalition of the Know No lings and Black Republicans, but there is about a year or more ago, are excessively cool stroog belief that several members of the Legis-laure who were elected as Democrats, were latu e, who were elected as Democrats, were bribel to betray their party to the enemy. IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO. - By way of Havana we have news from Vera Cruz to December 30th. The New York Herald's Havana correspondent writes as follows:

By the steamer Mejico (late United States,) which arrived on the 5th inst. from Vera Cruz, we are in possession of dates thence to the 30th ult. Politically speaking, she did not bring any Robberies and assassinations were of daily occurrence, yet the road is stated to be clear, and

Amongst the passengers who arrived here by the Mejico were the officers in the Mexican navy, who have come to take possession of El Demo crata. The officers and men on board the Dem ocrata, with Villivacencia at their head (who, however, prindently remains on shore), all refuse to give up the ship to their legally appointed successors. It is an extremely pretty quarrel as it stands, and it would not surprise me if we saw some bloodshed before possession of El Deiuccrata is obtained.

The Diario de la Marina has the following interesting Mexican news: Puebla surrendered on the 4th ult. by capitu the armed force to deliver up their arms at a point designated; and the countrymen leaving arms in the place which they occupied, being allowed to retire to their homes.

The country is overrun, in all directions, by different bands of rebels, of which that of the socalled Juan Vicario is said to have been routed by the troops of Gen. Alvarez in the Tierra Cali-

La Nacion, a newspaper of the City of Mexico, speaks in its number of the 21st ult. of the snow storm there thus: "Last night at half-past nine his friends; yet there are those who assert very o'clock a heavy snow storm began which lasted several hours. Never have we seen this phenombers of his Cabinet.

It may be that he has expressed some preference for two or three gentlemen as Cabinet officers, but it hy no meses follows that the has expressed some preference for two or three gentlemen as Cabinet officers, the curiosity of the inhabitants of the capital. The thermometer of Reasumer was one details. Never have we seen this phenomenon, so common in latitudes higher than ours, in Mexico before. It also excited to a high degree, the curiosity of the inhabitants of the capital. tal The thermometer of Reawmer was one de-gree above zero, and maintained itself there during the whole night. The flat roofs of the houses, the streets, the hills which surround the city of the lakes and give her so beautiful an aspect, the public walks, all remind us, this morning, of the first snow storm we ever witnessed, nich was last fall in the United States and in Europe. Mexico city presented this morning a truly picturesque sight, for green leaves of our ternal enring formed a lively contrast with the to which they were not accustomed.

The following is from the San Francisco Bulletin, received per the George Law, which is the latest from that quarter:

ANOTHER MURDER.—A most brutal marder was perpetrated at Carondele: yesterday, in a boarding house, kept by Matthew Keller. We gather the tollowing particulars from the report of an inquest held by Coroner Kennedy: About nine o'ctock in the morning, Robert Wheaton and James Alexander went up stairs to a room occupied by them nightly, and laid down morn the pied by them jointly, and laid down upon the bed. About 12 o'clock, oue John Lapointe came to the house, where he is also a boarder, and enquired for Wheaton. Being informed by one of the innuares that he was np stairs in bed, he picked up a large iron shovel and went up to Wheaton's room—and finding him asleep on the ed, struck him over the head with the shovel, ushing in the skull in a most shocking man ter, and causing instant death. He next attacked Alexander with the same weapon, injuring him seriously, and the latter only escaped a fate similar to that of his room-mate, by a hasty light down stairs.

Wheaton was a ship corpenter, and Lapointe is a caulkner, and it is not known that there was any feud between them, or that any provecation for the murder existed. Lapointe is a Canadian Frenchman by birth. He was arrested and taken before Justice Gamache for examination, but we have not learned the result. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was, that the decreased came to his death by blows inflicted by one John Lapointe. According to the report of the Coroner, this must have been a deliberate, malicious, cold-blooded murder, without any-think to pulliate it. The dastardliness of atacking the victim in his sleep was unredeemedly infamous under any circumstances of pravoca-tion that could have existed. St. Louis Intel. Jun. 16. We heard yesterday that the steamer Monongahela, which we reported loading at Unioutown, ran aground in sight of Elizabethtown, where she now lies in a perilous condition. Laughing, dancing, lary elf, Tell us where you hide yourself?

Scaled by the garden wall,
Where the green leaves shide your blushes,
Round your feet the rose leaves fail,
By your side the fountain gushes—
Shadows danoing roand your lace,
Dreaming in this lovely pace. Are the visions bright and fair,

That your passing moments bless? Won't you tell us what they are? Come, my beauty—now conless? Sitting by the garden wall, Where the fragram rose-leaves fall, vancing tendency.

Havre.—Cotton quoted at 108f for N. O. tres Bullion in the Bank of England has decreased £200,000.

Tea has advanced 1 1-2s. Sngar steady.
The Chinese news is fully confirmed. The Americans were also engaged against the Chinese.
The U. S. ship Portsmouth had destroyed one of their forts in consequence of an insult given the American flag. The congress at Paris is progressing satisfactorily. The Swiss difficulty is clearing up.

The steamers America and City of Manchester arrived out on the 1st inst. XXXIV CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION. Washington, Jan. 19:

SENATE .- The chair laid before the Senate communication from the presiding officer of the Delaware Legislature, announcing the election of Mr. Bavard, Senator from that State for 6 years, and of Mr. Bates to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Clayton.
The Senate then discussed and passed the diplomatic and consular bill. An ineffectual effort thur by Lis friends and the public generally was made to restore this appropriation stricken out by the State giving a salary of $5,000 to each of the 25 Consular pupils. An amendment was added to the bill repealing so much of the former law as authorizes the appointment of such officers. Adjourned. 1. JUSE .- Un motion of Mr. Taylor a resolution was adopted instructing the l'ostoflice Committee to inquire and report on the general subject of the transportation of the mail to San Francisco d whether it is not more expedient to contract fur weekly mails from New York and New Orleans to San Francisco, by way of Tehuantepec, when-A resolution was offered by Mr. Waiker, which was adopted, tunking a similar enquiry relative to a weekly mail from Mobile to San Francisco.

Mr. Morrell offered a resolution, which was adon'ed, calling upon the President to inform the House whether resistance—organized or otherwise—has been made, or is to be apprehended against the official authorities of Utah and to communicate all correspondence relative to the appointment or declination of officers in that Territory since January, 1852; and whether the laws thereof are practically administered wit's impartial justice to all the inhabitants

The first Tuesday of February was set apart for the consideration of business relative to the District of Columbia.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill for the relief of sick and disabled seamen.

Mr. Fuller entered into an explanation of the bill establishing collection districts in the United States, designating ports of entry and delivery and for other measures. The object of the bill he said, was to codify the numerous existing laws on the subject and to simplify and improve them so as to make them accord with the present condition of commerce.

On motion of Mr. Kelsey the corruption Investigation Committee was granted leave to sit during the session of the House. Adjourned. ALBANY, January 19.

About 5 o'clock this afternoon the mail train which left Syracuse at 8 this morning, due here at a quart rie 3 ran off the track through the subscement of a rail near Spencerville, about 8 miles from this place.
